DEFEATS THE MONK FOR THE CHAMPIONSHIP.

Goes the Fastest Second and Third Ever Trotted to Wagon-Rapid Fractions -Prince Selma in Ugly Mood-A Killing Made on Invader's Victory.

Lord Derby is champion of all wagon trotters by reason of defeating C. K. G. Billings's trotter, The Monk, 2.05%, to wagon at the Empire City Club's grand circuit racing yesterday. It was for a $5,000 silver cup and the world's championship, and was a strug-gle worthy of such high honors. In winning Derby went the fastest second and third heats ever trotted to wagon and the time of the race was but little behind Alix's threeheat record-2:06%, 2:05%, 2:06, the son of Mambrino King having trotted his miles in 200 and back in the same notch after losing the first round to The Monk in 2:06%.

Throughout wonderfully fast fractions were trotted. In the opening heat The Monk tratted the middle half in 1:01%, in the secand even faster-1.00%, while in the last heat Lord Derby stepped the first half in He was the most confident of starts and driver and horse were as one so ar as a complete understanding went, not skip being registered against the great bay trotting machine. It was clearly his day of days and no horse alive could have done better work in opposing him than did the sturdy Monk, ably handled by Mr. Bil-The Monk was barely beaten in the cest drive ever seen in a wagon race in the second heat, and Lord Derby was out to the last notch to carry the day. This after a hard winning heat in 2:08% stamps he Monk a very game horse, as good as any. In the final heat Mr. Billings decided to make the clip fast to tiptoe Derby on the turn, where he usually goes to the wall, if at all, but it was useless.

Another the short of 3,500 the model road horse show the crowd of 3,500 the model road horse at his best and an express train would not have feazed him. The Monk overtrotted himself in the second quarter and it was all over. Mr. Smathers has now driven his horse faster for one mile and for two heats than any amateur ever drove a trotter, and the first of the largest crowa even proposed to before the largest c at all, but it was useless. Derby was out to show the crowd of 3,500 the model road horse where he went away, as Mr. Smathers nodded for the word when slightly behind and The

where he went away, as Mr. Smathers nodded for the word when slightly behind and The Monk won by just about that margin. An accident occurred in the third heat of the race. The Monk pulled his shoe at the three-eighths pole and doubled it. Lord Derby will be sent once more to try for a record to wagon and it is thought he stands a good chance to cut The Abbot's 2.05½, which is the world's record.

The card opened with the 2.09 pace. Hudson & Gatcomb's Don Riley was favorite at 2 to 1 and little was played on it. Alta McDonald sneaked away in the lead, going to the turn in the first heat, and never was headed with his hoppiled roan pacer, Albert, taking the field into camp in 2.07½, a four-second drop in the horse's record. They stuck to Kiley in the betting and Hudson got him away steadily the next time. Riley and Home Circle seemed the freshest, but the latter went to a break and was out of the race at the half, leaving Effle Powers, the gallant old half-mile track mare, to force the clip. Hudson's big horse won in 2.08½ and it was, all around, a fast race. They paced to the half in 1.02 in the final heat.

The 2:18 trotters were also limited to half a dozen starters. Owing to his good races of late, Hudson's Prince Selma, 2.10½, was favorite. Mart Demarest sprang his annual surprise, however, with Invader winning easily.

EASY FIGHT FOR GANS. He Knocks Gus Gardner Out in Fifth Round at Baltimore.

BALTIMORE, Sept. 17.—Champion Joe Gans knocked out Gus Gardner of Philadelphia in the fifth round at Music Hall to-night. The bout was scheduled for twenty rounds. The men weighed in at 138 pounds, Gans tipping the beam at 134. It was Gans's fight from the start. Gardner was wild and failed to land an effective blow in the first two rounds. Gans seemed to be taking his man's measure. In the fourth and fifth he went at Gardner and floored him frequently.

The knockout came after two and a half ninutes of fighting in the fifth round. Gans had Gardner on Queer street and knocked im down several times with lefts to the body and rights to the jaw and mouth. It was the easiest battle Gans ever has won. The house was crowded, about 4,000 persons being present. Charley White of New York was the referre. The men fought under Queensberry rules, breaking at the command of the referre. Prior to the bout it was agreed that the winner should give a return light.

Line-up on Yale's Gridiron. New Haven, Conn., Sept. 17.—The first line-up of the season for the Yale football team took place this afternoon and lasted about twenty-five minutes. The backs were sent through the line and around the ends while the tackles were sent through the opposite tackles. The work was first-class, Hogan doing especially well. He is much quicker than last year, and seems to have a good stock of confidence, something he has lacked previously. The squad was augmented to-day by the arrival of several men, the number of candidates on the field being twenty-four. Conspicuous among the newcomers was Vanderpoel, one of Yale's hopes for full back, a good punter, but erratic. Coffin, looked upon as a sure end, was on the field. Abbott, another candidate for full back, also put in an appearance, as did Morton, the 212-pound candidate for guard. Other new men were Lewis, Moorehead, Neal, Preston, Stillman, Shaw and White.
